Jargon Game Calls provides hunters with high quality, lifetime duck, goose and turkey calls. We make and hand-tune all our calls right here in Arkansas, USA. We as duck, goose & turkey hunters, we have our own Jargon. We use it to communicate amongst each other before the hunt, during the hunt, and after the hunt! "Get down", "here they come", "take 'em", "send the dog", and "Nice Shooting Boys" are just some examples of Jargon being used on a daily basis among hunters. It doesn't stop there though. In order to attain success in the Duck, Goose & Turkey World, we need to be well versed in their JARGON. We have to entice them with our words, the passion in our calling, and the timing of our delivery. This is where JARGON GAME CALLS was brought into fruition!

Small Talk

Single-Reed Aggressive Open Water / Timber Call

This one of a kind single-reed duck call can be used in any condition. However, the Small Talk really shines on those days you need to get aggressively loud on top and straight nasty on the bottom end. Don't underestimate the name of this call, it seriously packs a punch. Its unique tone-board design and exhaust port make it a very user friendly call. You will be impressed on how effortless the feed chatter is on both bottom and top. The Small Talk is engineered with a machined J-Duct Moisture Reduction System that prevents the reed from sticking to the tone board. It also features a molded wedge which provides a tune-free system as opposed to cork wedge designs.

- Single-Reed Aggressive Timber/Open Water Call
- Close To Distant Calling
- Molded Wedge Design
- Beginners To Advanced Callers
- Medium Hold
- Extreme Rattle On Both Top & Bottom

Wreckin' Ball

Short-Reed Goose Call

When it comes to mastering the vocabulary and speech patterns of the Canada Goose, the caller must strive to be versatile, authentic, and mesmerizing! We need to keep in mind that there are several subspecies of the Canada Goose and to be the most complete goose hunter, we need to make it our goal to talk like them all! The Wreckin' Ball by JARGON allows us to go from a twelve pound greater to a lesser just by switching up our mouth and hand positions. It lets us talk fast but allows us to slow down and give that flock the finishing touch they desire. The Wreckin' Ball has a volume dial on it as well and the caller can be rest assured that he or she will be able to hammer on that long distance cluck and then turn it down to get them to put their legs down and light into the decoys! All in all, it's a powerful little call that will help make each and every goose hunt a memorable one! By the time they think it's feed time, the party will be over.

- Shortest call on the market for maximum versatility
- Wide range of pitches from high to low
- Nasally tone
- Ability to be used loud for distant flocks to getting quiet to finish them at ten feet

Crazy Train

Short-Reed Goose Call

Sometimes we refer to them as greaters. Sometimes we describe them as honkers. Some of us just say, the “bigguns”! The Big Canada’s have become a favorite of so many goose hunters across the world! We can chase them in pretty much all of the continental United States, Canada, and New Zealand! When the big geese talk, we all listen. The Crazy Train will take you to the graduating class of the Canada Goose Vocabulary! With unparalleled volume to the richest of tones, this train ride is one that may or may not go off the rails! Get their attention and then woo them into your decoy landing zone with the finishing touches! This call has been proven in the field and we are so happy to introduce you to the Crazy Train! All Aboard!

- Comfortable grip
- Maximum volume
- Very goosey and realistic tones
- Awesome finishing and lay down sounds easily emulated.
